Maintenance

Halloween is upon us!

A few tips for safe ghouls and goblins:

Travel with friends, not alone. Prearrange a route for your child to follow. Adult supervision required for small children.

Ensure vision and movement are not restricted. Consider makeup rather than masks. Costumes must be short enough to avoid tripping.

Light jack-o'-lanterns with battery operated lights rather than candles to prevent fires.

Have a no snacking rule – check goodies for intact wrappers before kids indulge (and to pilfer their peanut butter cups).

If you're driving on Halloween night, drive extra slowly and with extreme caution.

Expect excited kids to do the unexpected.
