RESOURCE GUIDE

NATIONAL RESOURCES

A.A.

Alcoholics Anonymous is an international fellowship of men and women who have had a drinking problem. It is nonprofessional, self-supporting, multiracial, apolitical, and available almost everywhere. There are no age or education requirements. Membership is open to anyone who wants to do something about his or her drinking problem.

Visit www.aa.org for a local A.A. resource near you.

Addiction Support Group

No matter where you live, there is a drug rehab center that can help you overcome your addiction. We can help you find treatment based on your location, budget, and specific needs and help you get started quickly.

Visit www.addictioncenter.com to find a rehab near you or speak to an expert at 855-706-9275.

American Legion

To support and advocate for veterans, active military, and their families. To support the initiatives and programs of The American Legion. To foster patriotism and responsible citizenship. Visit www.legion.org for more information.

MADD

Mothers Against Drunk Driving is a nonprofit organization in the United States and Canada that seeks to stop drunk driving, support those affected by drunk driving, prevent underage drinking, and strive for stricter impaired driving policy, whether that impairment is caused by alcohol or any other drug. Visit www.madd.org for more information.

Suicide Prevention Hotline

We can all help prevent suicide. The Lifeline provides 24/7, free, and confidential support for people in distress, prevention and crisis resources for you or your loved ones, and best practices for professionals. Visit www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org or call 1-800-273-8255 for more information.

USAA

With roots grounded in the military, we bring its methods to your finances and its values to our service through an exclusive suite of financial products, tools, and advice. Learn more at www.usaa.com.

USO

The USO is not part of the federal government. A congressionally chartered, private organization, the USO relies on the generosity of individuals, organizations and corporations to support its activities, and is powered by a family of volunteers to accomplish our mission of connection. Visit www.uso.org for more information.

Operation Homefront

A national nonprofit whose mission is to build strong, stable, and secure military families so they can thrive in the communities they've worked so hard to protect. They offer programs such as: Critical Financial Assistance, Home on the Homefront, Operation Homefront Villages, Transitional Homes for Community Reintegration, Hearts of Valor, Military Child of the Year, Back to School Brigade, Star Spangled Baby Showers, Holiday Meals for Military, Holiday Toy Drive and Homefront Celebration. Visit www.operationhomefront.org for more information. Also call toll free at (800) 722-6098 or email info@OperationHomefront.org.

National Military Family Association

NMFA is the voice of the military families. For 49 years we have proven that we stand behind service members, their spouses, and their children. Our Association is the "go to" source for Administration Officials, Members of Congress, and key decision makers when they want to understand the issues facing our families. They know we have "boots on the ground" with military families and understand better than anyone that "military families serve, too." Through the support and programs we provide and our respected voice on Capital Hill and with the Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs, our Association always looks out for the families who stand behind the uniform and for those who serve. Visit www.militaryfamily.org for more information. Also call toll free at 703-931-6632 or email info@militaryfamily.org.

Military OneSource

Offers help with all aspects of military life. The counseling is free and confidential. Visit www.militaryonesource.mil or call 800-342-9647 for more information.

Wounded Warrior Project

Wounded Warrior Project is a charity and veterans service organization that offers a variety of programs, services, and events for wounded veterans of the military actions. Visit www.woundedwarriorproject.org or call 888-997-2586 for more information.

Fisher House

Fisher House Foundation builds comfort homes where military & veterans families can stay free of charge, while a loved one is in the hospital. Visit www.fisherhouse.org or call 888-294-8560 for more information.
